Elena Novelli returns to Turin to begin a new life. At The Mall she meets the owner of the shopping mall, Ettore Ferri. But they do not know that they are father and daughter.... Elena's mother died just before she saw her and could tell her the truth. Giuliano, by contrast, hates Ettore Ferri and has sworn to revenge his mother who suffered as a result of the former. Instead he falls for the beautiful Elena...

Laura Bettini is having marital problems with her husband Valerio (a good policeman) because she has fallen in love with Ettore. But he has rejected her and now she is lonelier than she has ever been.

Paolo Monti, by contrast, who lives with his daughter Benedetta and his father Ugo, is head over heels in love with Rosa Bettini.

But she must find the strength to leave Ivan (Valerio's brother) who even mistreats her. Ivan is in love with Anita Ferri, Ettore's beautiful and wicked daughter, who hates Elena and wants to be the most powerful woman in Turin. But one day Anita meets Federico, Laura's son. He is a good man and wants to become a priest. It is an extremely painful case of love at first sight for Anita.

Gabriele Andreasi is an excellent lawyer who calls Giuliano to work for him. The two become great friends. Gabriele marries Fatima Hazis, a young Somalian girl, even though his father is against the marriage.

Rosa loses the baby she was expecting with Ivan. But she decides to pretend that she is still pregnant and tries to buy a baby from another pregnant woman...
